

Date: 25th January 2023

Dear Parent / Carer,

As you will have seen in recent media, the National Education Union (NEU) has announced that its ballot of teacher members in England has met the thresholds required to commence industrial actions. The NEU's members will be called upon to take part in strike action next Wednesday, 1 February 2023.

Our intention is to remain open for some year groups, depending on staff numbers. However we are likely to ask certain year groups to work from home as we do not envisage having enough staff to cover all year groups.

Please bear this in mind when scheduling your calendar for next week.

Further information will follow once I am made further aware of how many teachers are intending to strike.

Kind regards,

Mr T Body
Headteacher
